January Highlights:

- There were no new dependencies filed in January
- There were 2 reunifications in January
- There were no new in-home dependencies
- There was 1 new guardianship established, youth is with family
- 4 guardianships were closed due to children aging out
- Monthly Parent celebration and Culture night were held in January, thank our families that attended and our staff for setting up the events
- Staff and Office of Reservation of Attorney continue to work on the final redline draft for code amendments. Our goal is to have it ready for community meeting in July 2025
- Staff and Office of Reservation Attorney are also working on updating the Intergovernmental Agreement and Fostercare Licensing standards, our goal is to license our first home by June 2025
- Imagine a new child welfare system. Tulalip Tribes is a sovereign nation, we don't have to use the state model for child welfare. We will bring together a team of volunteers to develop an action plan to change our Tribal welfare system. Begin to imagine a new way. If you are interested in volunteering for the team, please contact Shelly

Looking for Placement Homes

We need your assistance in providing temporary and long-term placement for our youth.
