Your Voice Matters

PROBATE CODE PUBLIC MEETING

The Tulalip Tribes Office of the Reservation Attorney invites Tribal members and community members to attend a public meeting to learn about and provide feedback on the proposed Probate Code.

This is an opportunity to hear about the proposed code, ask questions, share your thoughts, and help shape the future of probate matters to our community.

The Office of the Reservation Attorney is seeking community feedback on the proposed Probate Code before it is finalized. Your input is important and will help ensure the code reflects the needs and values of our community.
