

Civil Legal Aid is Available to You

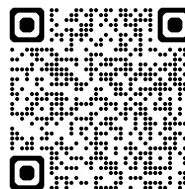

TOCLA intake and the Pro Se Navigator may be your first contact with our office for these services. Office hours are 1:00PM–3:00PM on Mondays. Please call or email TOCLA Intake or see the Pro Se Navigator to schedule outside office hours and to check eligibility.

If you have more questions and do not have an attorney, your Court Clerk and Pro Se Navigator can help. We're not lawyers. We cannot tell you what you should do, but we can help you with the Code. As a Tulalip tribal member, you can always call to talk with the Pro Se Navigator and ask if you qualify for legal help from other TOCLA attorneys.

CIVIL LEGAL AID ATTORNEY

Civil Legal Aid Attorney:

The Tulalip Office of Civil Legal Aid, or TOCLA, has attorneys that can help with civil matters. There are different parts of TOCLA and each attorney has their own role. This guide is about the Civil Legal Aid Attorney.

What Does the Attorney Do?

The attorney provides guidance for civil matters at the Tulalip Tribal Court. The attorney is able to help with:

- Consumer Law
- Education Law
- Exclusions (Deferrals Only)
- Family Law
- Employment
- Landlord-Tenant Law
- Powers of Attorney
- Protection Orders
- Public Benefits
- Re-Entry Services
- Guardianships

To check if you are able to meet with the attorney, you can speak with the Pro Se Navigator to get that process started.

Do I Qualify?

The Pro Se Navigator can see if you are eligible to meet with the Civil Legal Aid Attorney.

Only Tulalip Tribal members are eligible for this assistance. Seeing if you qualify can be done over the phone or in person.

What If I Don't Qualify?

The Pro Se Navigator will be able to give legal information for the Tulalip Tribal Code and provide resources that may help. The Pro Se Navigator cannot give legal advice, but can provide guidance on the legal process for anyone who might not qualify for an attorney. More info on the Pro Se Navigator can be found on a separate guide.

When Will I Meet With the Civil Aid Attorney?

We have open office hours from 1:00PM until 3:00PM on Mondays.

Before meeting, eligibility must first be established with the Pro Se Navigator.

Come to the Pro Se Navigator's office area, fill the intake, and get checked-in.

Can They Represent Me?

Sadly, the Civil Legal Aid Attorney cannot represent you at this time. The attorney helps so many members that they would not be able to give advice to the whole community. We are here for all qualifying members, not just a specific few.
